WE ASKED MEMBERS HOW SUPPORTED THEY FEEL BY OPSEU

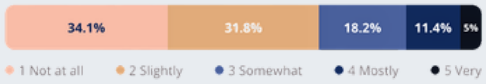
2 OUT OF 3 RATED SUPPORT LOW

On a 5-point scale, nearly two-thirds of members rated their union support a 1 or a 2. That's the starting point for everything below.



EVERY TIME OPSEU GETS BLINDSIDED –

BY GOVERNMENT MOVES, BY CRISES, BY ITS OWN INTERNAL DYSFUNCTION–

IT IS OUR MEMBERS WHO PAY THE PRICE.

Ram sits on boards like OPTrust and United Way. On boards like these, you don't just react — you plan.

Data-driven strategy. Long-term thinking. Getting ahead of problems instead of scrambling after them.

OPSEU deserves the same discipline. Strikes are a critical tool — but a union that only fights back after the damage is done will always be one step behind.

RAM SELVARAJAH

I know that unions aren't built in boardrooms; they're built in break rooms, shop floors and the places where everyday members actually work.

So, while my experience gives me the tools to do the job, I know it is our members' reality that must set my agenda."

PLATFORM & FOCUS
= MEMBERS' EXPERIENCE

Since November, Ram's hosted OPSEU members across Ontario with one focus: understanding what members are dealing with.

Supporters, skeptics, and even other candidates' teams were invited because every member, regardless of whether they agree with Ram, deserves to have their voice heard about what the future of OPSEU should be.

We tracked and analyzed over 800 minutes of community conversations with 200+ members across all 7 regions, with nearly every sector represented. 12 issues kept coming up consistently. Here are the top 6:

STAFF REP WORKLOAD — CRITICAL

YOU CALL FOR HELP. YOU GET A VOICEMAIL. YOU CALL AGAIN. NOTHING.

"We've had about five or six staff reps in the last four years. Every time, you start over." — Member, Feb 2026

LOCAL SUPPORT & RESTRUCTURING — CRITICAL

LOCAL PRESIDENTS ARE RUNNING THEIR LOCALS OFF THE SIDE OF THEIR DESKS.

"Our archaic book-off formula needs to be reevaluated for its effectiveness — it's inherently biased." — Local president, Nov 2025

FINANCIAL TRANSPARENCY — HIGH PRIORITY

MEMBERS WANT TO SEE WHERE THEIR DUES GO — AND THEY'RE NOT GETTING ANSWERS.

"Way too much money is wasted on inefficient projects and wasteful costly resources." — Member, Jan 2026

WAGES & COST-OF-LIVING — HIGH PRIORITY

WE'RE EARNING 1995 WAGES IN A 2026 ECONOMY.

"We're actually earning circa 1995 wages, in terms of real wages vis-a-vis inflation and productivity." — Member, Feb 2026

TECHNOLOGY MODERNIZATION — HIGH PRIORITY

THE SYSTEMS ARE STUCK IN 2005 — AND MEMBERS ARE PAYING THE PRICE.

"The software is very archaic. There's currently a wait list for members to have a Benefits Officer review their claim." — Member, Jan 2026

BOARD DIVISION & TOXIC CULTURE — HIGH PRIORITY

THERE'S A CLIMATE OF FEAR — AND MEMBERS KNOW IT.

"Don't play dirty politics in the boardroom at the cost of our members' welfare and services." — Member, Feb 2026

ENDORSEMENTS

Disagreement Without Gridlock

"I've argued with Ram and seen his dedication to open communication and considering other views."
– Loretta Clark, Local 123 President

"I have watched Ram in rooms fractured by division, where he remains a steady anchor — calm, cool, and collected in the face of heated debate."
– Cezerina Estrela, OPS Member

A Seasoned Problem Solver

"This guy gets things done, and we need somebody who's a person of action with a plan. somebody who's competent and can successfully troubleshoot for members."
– Chris Draxyl, Local 526 President

Fights for True Accountability

"I was truly impressed with Ram's insight at MERC. He did not hesitate to call out the machinations of government abuse, including their extensive and corrosive use of costly consultants as a ploy to escape accountability."
— James Sloots, Past Local President, MERC Vice Chair

On Essential Leadership Character

"What stands out most about Ram is the way he shows up for people. He takes the time to guide emerging leaders and helps them succeed.

He fosters a culture where people feel supported, respected, and connected. He cares about our team not just as colleagues, but as people. This *kind of leadership matters because strong unions require this to succeed."

– Jennifer Pouw, 1st Vice President, PRLC
